

Pre owned clothing

Terms and conditions

Violet Store act as an agent for pre owned clothing left on its premises for the purpose of selling on behalf of the owner

All items left at Violet Store remain the property of the owner

- Items accepted for sale must be in pristine condition.
- Items must have no stains or damage.
- Items must be laundered.

Items will be offered for sale at a price agreed between the item's owner and Violet Store.

A commission of 50% of the achieved sale price will be paid to the owner after the item has sold, at the end of the 8 week selling period, by bank transfer

Items will be offered for sale for a period of 6 weeks, at the agreed sale price, if items have not sold at this point they may be offered for sale for a further 2 weeks at a reduced price

Items must be collected after the 8 week sale period. No reminders will be issued and due to storage restrictions, any items not collected one week after this date will be donated to charity.

All items left at Violet Store will be treated with the utmost care. Violet Store do not take responsibility for any items damaged whilst held in the store.
